Our First Number. Is remodelling the two papers, heretofore published, it is impossible for us to present our readers with a fair specimen of what we shall be able to make our paper hereafter, when we shall have had time to look into our exchanges and mature our plans.

On our first page will be found two thrilling stories, which are both within the bounds of possibility. Our selections of poems this week, we think will be read investigating committee on public printing, is lengthy but we could not elip or condense it, without doing injustice to the readers to take time to read it carefully. Our miscellaneous articles are carefully selected, and we think will fully compensate the reader, for the time he devotes to them.

Township Election.

The Spring Election for Hocking town ship, on Monday, resulted in the choice of the entire Democratic ticket, as was to be expected; but the aggregate majorities, were far below those of last election; which indicates the gradual, but certain growing strength of the Republican party. Unusual exertions were made, the bringing to the hundred greater than at the last election. It will be granfying to the people of Hocking township to know, that Isaac KERNS was re-elected Trustee, Mr. Kerns run as an independent Democrat, in opposition to the caucus candidates. He having been excluded. We learn that Mr. Kerns was an efficient and faithful officer. The officers chosen, are,
